

Erika Wyatt

Principal and Executive Vice President

The International Kennel Club of Chicago and The Great American Dog Show

Erika serves as the Chief Financial Officer and heads IKC's philanthropic relationships.

Erika is a partner at Schiller DuCanto & Fleck, and a Lecturer at Law at The University of Chicago Law School.

She serves as the president, AKC delegate and judges education chair for the American Sloughi Association. Her nearly 30-year passion for this rare sighthound has led her and husband, Andrew, to travel throughout Morocco to obtain authentic breeding stock from traditional North African breeders. Under the affix of Ocerico Sloughis, she has bred or owned the first AKC champion, grand champion, Best in Show winner, Reserve Best in Show winner, group winner, and NOHS Best in Show winners in the breed.
